

MHA

It is 75 years since the first Methodist Home for older people was opened. Once a year we are asked to support the MHA by giving what ever we can to help support these homes. Gift envelopes, together with leaflets about the MHA, are on the table for anyone who is interested to read what the MHA has achieved over the years, not only providing homes for those unable to look after themselves, but also to enable people to stay in their own homes with help from MHA.

Thank-you

Bereavement

It is with great sadness to report Sue Yardy's father has died after a long illness. The service took place on Thursday 21st June led by the Rev Bryan Yardy. Our thoughts and prayers are with Sue, Bryan and Joshua at this time.

Local Preacher

Just to let you know I've just had my accreditation service and it was wonderful. I really feel God doing his good work through me.

I wanted to thank you for all you have done for up to this point in my journey and would love to meet with you again soon. I wish all the best to everyone at St Thomas'.

Thanks and God bless,

Ed Lyne
